Career

Born in Parma (Italy) in 1957, I graduated in Political Science from the University of Pisa and the Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna (1979). In 1981 I received the M.A. degree from the School of Advanced International Studies, Johns Hopkins University (Washington, D.C.). In 1982 I was selected as economist in the Economic commission of the UN for Africa (renounced).

Before entering the academic career, I was:

- Research Fellow, Nomisma - Economic Research Institute, Bologna (1982-1990): Nomisma is a think-tank established in 1981 under the leadership of prof. Romano Prodi. From 1986 to 1990, I managed Nomisma's industrial policy "laboratory" (scientific director: prof. Patrizio Bianchi). Research projects included the participation to the MIT Future of the Automobile Program and works on, among others, the economic significance of technical standardization in manufacturing, support services to SMEs, industrial policy governance in European countries and Japan, the role of the airport in local economic development (the case of Bologna), governance and regulation of trade fairs, territorial marketing, industrial policy evaluation etc.
- Advisor for economic policy and planning, Office of the President of the Regione Emilia-Romagna, Bologna (1990-1991).

I entered the academic career as researcher at the Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna in 1991. I have been Full Professor since January 2005): Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna is a public research university under special statute, with undergraduate, post-graduate, doctoral and lifelong learning educational programs. Sant'Anna ranks 153rd (1st in Italy) in the THE World University Ranking 2019, 9th in the THE Young University Ranking 2018, 3rd in the THE Best Small University Ranking 2018. In THE "business and economics" ranking 2019, Sant'Anna ranks in the top 150 (world) and 5th in Italy.

At the Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna, I was also:

- coordinator of the Steering committee and responsible for impact evaluation of the "Link Project", a multi-location project on technology transfer financed by the Italian government (1996-2001);
- director of the research laboratory on management and innovation - MAIN LAB (2002-2010);
- member of the board (2002-2004 and 2007-2010);
- director of student affairs (2002-2004);
- director of the Volterra Summer School (for prospective students) (2003-2007);
- local organizer of the Regional Studies Association 2013 International Conference and of the Italian Regional Science Association - AISRe 2016 National Conference;
- coordinator of the cooperation activities with Chongqing University (2005-2014);
- co-director (2010-2014) and chairman of the Advisory Board (2008-2013) of the Confucius Institute in Pisa (<http://www.sssup.it/confuciopisa>);
- director of the Galileo Galilei Italian Institute at Chongqing University (2007-2014) (<http://ggii.cqu.edu.cn>);
- Executive Director of the joint DBA (Doctorate of Business Administration) program of the Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna, Grenoble Ecole de Management and Chongqing University (2012-2014).

I have also been in charge of several externally-funded research projects, including the following: Evaluation of National Research and Innovation Funds 2007-2013 (Invitalia, Rome, 2018-2019); scientific support to the Interreg project “Relos3” (Metropolitan Authority Bologna, 2017-2018); City of International Knowledge - City marketing project (Municipality of Florence, 2013-2014); Identity and economic transformation in Piombino and Val di Cornia (Municipality and Port Authority Piombino, 2012-2014); Economic development scenarios for Rosignano Marittimo (Municipality, 2012-2012); The Landscape as factor of territorial attractiveness and competitiveness (Regione Toscana, 2011); Knowledge economy strategy for the Province of Grosseto (Provincial Government, 2005-2008); Analysis and evaluation criteria of policies and projects concerning the international relations of territories, of the civil society and of the local economies (Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 2005-2007); City marketing strategy (Municipality of Pisa, 2002-2003).

From 2009 to 2011 I was the Director of the Regional Institute for Economic Planning of Tuscany - IRPET, Florence (<http://www.irpet.it>): Irpet was established in 1968 and works as provider of economic analysis to the Regional Government and the Regional Assembly of Tuscany. At that time Irpet had a staff of 50, annual funding of 4.5 million Euro and published approx. 20 reports every year.

From 2013 to 2015 I was member of the board of the newly established Gran Sasso Science Institute, L'Aquila, and deputy chair of the PhD program in Urban Studies (<http://www.gssi.infn.it>): The Gran Sasso Science Institute is an international PhD school and a center for advanced studies in physics, mathematics, computer science and social sciences, located in L'Aquila, financed by the Italian government and supported by the Organization for Cooperation and Economic Development (OECD).

In September 2014 Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna granted me a leave¹, in order to take on the role of Director of the La Rochelle Tourism Management Institute and Professor of Economics and Management of Tourism at Groupe Sup de Co La Rochelle, now Excelia Group (France) (September 2014 - June 2018, <http://www.excelia-grou.fr>): GSCLR is a “Grande Ecole” established in 1988 with approx. 3000 students in higher education (bachelor and master) programs in management and in management of tourism. It is accredited AACSB, TedQual and EPAS, and ranks 81st in the FT European Business School Rankings 2017.

Other

a) management roles

In 2008-2017 I was a member (and, from 2013 to 2016, chair) of the Performance Evaluation Team of the Regional Agency for Education, Training and Employment (ARIFL) of the Lombardy Region, Milano (Italy): The team reviewed the policies of the Agency concerning managers' evaluation and validates the Director General's decisions in this area.

In 2013-2014 I was member of the board of directors of the Associazione Uni-Italia as official representative of the Italian Minister for Education, University and Research: Associazione Uni-Italia is Italy's promotional agency in charge of attracting foreign students to Italian academic institutions.

In 2008-2011 I was trustee of the Regional Studies Association (<http://www.regional-studies-assoc.ac.uk/>) and Chair of the Research Network Committee: RSA is a learned society concerned with the analysis of regions and sub national issues, that is represented in nearly 50 countries worldwide with approx. 1000 members. The RNC chairmanship included responsibility for the development of about 20 research networks and was allocated a budget of £250,000 for expenditure in increasing both capacity and coordination within the field of regional studies.

¹ According to Italian law, university professors may be granted a period of unpaid leave up to five years.

In 1997-2002 I was chairman of the board of Pont-Tech (www.pont-tech.it), a newly-established technology transfer agency of the Scuola Superiore S. Anna, the University of Pisa, the Province of Pisa, the City Council of Pontedera and Piaggio Spa: Pont-tech's mission concerns the support to the development of small and medium-sized companies. I managed the start-up of the agency and the development and implementation of its business plan.

b) international cooperation

In 2011-2013 I coordinated the participation of Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna to the Interreg IVc Project DISTRICT+, Subproject "EAST_INNO_TRANSFER- Supporting Innovation and Fostering Knowledge Transfer in the New EU Member States".

In 2008-2010 I was member of the Expert group of the Cross-border Cooperation Program Italy - France Maritime.
